Subject: Draft Minutes from Jan 28

Hey James,

Here are the minutes from today

As of January 28, 2010, Judy contacted multiple professors on possible interest in advising or being associated with our project. She also registered this project for the MIT 100K competition and is currently writing up the description for the 100K competition proposal. Franco created and uploaded a Google Doc folder for unified storage of the data being used. He will be posting a document containing more concrete objectives on what to do next into this folder. Peter designed the basic layouts of the website for the project and sketched possible amendments for the Crime Club website. Cody will be working on a to-do list for the project back-end section as well as a prototype for Monday's meeting.

I hope this is concise and ok. Email me with any concerns.

Best,

Peter
